The following Associations have applied for recognition as representative societies:—

1). Anjemanda Nakhadevinca i. Blanna Chennapatna.

In this case, the application has been sent in the proper form. The Book has not yet registered itself yet. It is stated that the Book forms part of the Co-operative Bank started, & registered under the Co-op. Societies Regulation and as such the Book should get any necessity & register it under the Societies Regulation. The rules do not provide this regarding the recognition of Books as representative societies require that it should be registered, failing which recognition may have the usual penalties.

The Book has not yet got any bye-laws. The question of recognition of the Book is pending. It has engaged the privilege of sending monthly returns to the Reg Book
